

We need YOUR help

to make our upcoming LIVE FOREVER concert more than a great show.

Matthew West has a vision to take his music beyond entertainment. His ministry, popwe, works to equip a GROUND TEAM of prayer partners who stand ready to serve. Their role is simple: to promote the “power of story” and pray with those in need after the show – to help them find healing, experience hope, and take their next step in a journey toward Christ.

popwe.org

The song “My Own Little World” is what inspired Matthew to move from “me” to “WE.” If you haven’t had the chance to hear Matthew’s music yet, please take two minutes to watch this video and be inspired!

Please prayerfully consider becoming a

*God does not call the qualified;
He qualifies the called.*

popwe

Ground Team Volunteer

1

Prepare

Prepare to Serve

Attend a one-hour training session designed to not only equip you in your role as prayer partner and volunteer, but also, more importantly – to inspire you in a new and compelling way!

2

Attend

PRAY and PROMOTE

The night of the concert, please arrive early for a pre-concert huddle meeting.

After the show, members of the ground team will pray with those who come forward, as well as help distribute popwe materials to promote the “power of story.”

Get ready for a night of amazing music, praise and inspiration!

Not sure if you are “qualified” to be a prayer partner? Don’t worry! We’ll give you a simple yet meaningful process to follow!

Need tickets? Great news – as a ground team member, your admission is free. Be sure to purchase tickets for your friends and family at matthewwest.com.

